Market Commentary

Key benchmark indices ended on a flat note in the week ended Friday, 19 December 2014. Market slumped in the first three trading sessions of the week as prospects of higher interest rates in the United States and a sharp fall in global crude oil prices weighed on sentiment. Losses were, however, wiped off in the last two trading sessions of the week driven by a broad-based rally, mirroring gains in global equity markets, triggered by signals from the Federal Open Market Committee that the US central bank isn't in a hurry to raise interest rates in the United States. The barometer index, the S&P BSE Sensex, reclaimed the psychological 27,000 mark after slipping below that level during the week. Small and mid-cap shares tumbled in a broad-based sell off. The S&P BSE Sensex rose 0.08% to 27,371. The 50-unit CNX Nifty rose 0.01% to 8,225. For the next week Nifty likely to trade in the range between 8300 – 8350 in the upper side and 8100 – 8050 in the lower side.
